25 Best Romantic Vienna Hotels

Situated on the Danube River in eastern Austria, Vienna, the country's capital exudes history, culture, and romance. Renowned for its magnificent Imperial palaces, such as Schönbrunn, the Habsburgs' summer residence, the city has an artistic and intellectual legacy shaped by famous residents such as Beethoven, Mozart, and Sigmund Freud, which is reflected throughout the city. The MuseumsQuartier district is home to a plethora of contemporary and historic buildings that display artworks by world-renowned artists such as Gustav Klimt, Egon Schiele, and others. One of the romantic cities in Europe, Vienna has an array of luxurious hotels in which to stay while exploring and here are some of them. Photo: Shutterstock

5 Hotel Kärntnerhof

Hotel Kärntnerhof is an elegant boutique hotel within the heart of historic Vienna, located approximately three minutes on foot from the beautiful St. Stephen's Cathedral. The hotel is housed within a gorgeous 19th-century building furnished with Viennese, French, and Italian design elements, including a Gründerzeit-style façade. 44 Viennese Art Nouveau-style guest rooms are available for overnight stay, including three spacious suites showcasing beautiful oak parquet floors and fine art elements. Guest amenities include a complimentary breakfast buffet with vegan options, a library and computer station, and a rooftop terrace with beautiful city views of the nearby towers of Heiligenkreuzerhof.
